Comments:

A routine hazardous waste generator inspection was conducted at Sho-Aids Inc., located in Folcroft Borough, Delaware County, on 3/29/04 by Melissa Merkerich and Mary Alice Reisse of the Department. Mr. Andrew Codomo, President, was present for Sho-Aids.

Sho-Aids is listed as a small quantity generator of hazardous waste (notification 9/26/1989). Mr. Codomo claimed that the facility no longer generates hazardous waste, and that the facility has no hazardous waste manifests on file. He explained that the facility used to have a paint booth, but it was put out of commission in the early 1990's. The warehouse area was inspected and no hazardous waste was observed. The facility constructs show booths.

Sho-Aids should renotify the EPA of its non-generator status if no hazardous waste is to be generated. A copy of the Notification of Regulated Waste Activity form will be sent to Sho-Aids.

This inspection report is notice of the findings of an inspection conducted by a representative of the Department. This report is formal notification of any violations observed during the inspection. Additional notification of violations may be issued concerning either violations noted herein, or other violations identified as a result of review of laboratory analyses or Department records.

Hello,

I was told by Andrew Codamo during a routine inspection of your 6 Horne Drive facility in Folcroft, PA that this facility no longer generates hazardous waste. However, it is listed as a SQG of hazardous waste with EPA ID# PAD061822359. If this facility's generator status is incorrect, which Mr. Codamo claims it is, 25 PA Code 262a.12(b) states that a subsequent notification of regulated waste activity must be made.
